LIFE IMPRISONMENT FOR C. ALEXANDER

UXORICIDE SAVED FROM ELECTRIC CHAIR THROUGH
MERCY OF COURT

TERRIBLE CASE

Pelzer Mill Village Resident Slew
His Wife in Brutal Manner.

Court of general sessions for Anderson county adjourned Saturday afternoon after a trying week of hard work. The court disposed of many cases and the work expedited by the business-like manner of Judge Sease. The case of Curran Alexander, charged with murder, was tried Saturday. The defendant was found guilty with a recommendation to mercy. The case was a long one, and the defense was ably represented by Messrs. Dagnall and Prince, who were appointed by the court to defend the prisoner.

The evidence in case brought out the fact that Alexander, resident of Pelzer mill village, cut his wife's throat with a razor. The murder was one of the most brutal in the history of the county. The only eye witness was the 11 year old son of Alexander who was standing in the door of the room when the murder was enacted. The little fellow presented a very pitiful appearance on the stand and told a tale that touched the hearts of everyone in the court room. Alexander's defense was based on temporary insanity.

Alexander went on the stand and denied everything. He asserted that his wife cut him and that he did not know where the knife in his hand came from, and that he had never seen it before.

The case went to the jury after two arguments for the defense and one for the state. The judge charged the jury and after about 20 minutes deliberation they returned a verdict of "guilty with recommendation to mercy."

The sentence of imprisonment for life, was pronounced by the judge just before the adjournment of court.

CHICK SPRINGS 1916

Invitation of Anderson Was Withdrawn on Certain Good Grounds.

The Anderson delegation to the state meeting of the T. P. A. at Charleston returned to the city Saturday afternoon and all report that a very enjoyable time was had. The meeting was a live one, and the delightful city of Charleston proved to be an ideal place for the convention. When the Anderson delegation went to the meeting, they were requested to present a pressing invitation to the convention to come to Anderson for the 1916 meeting.

Col. Tom Arnold, proprietor of the Chick Springs hotel, asked the delegation to withdraw in favor of his invitation on the condition that he arrange for a special train to bring the entire convention to Anderson for one day. These arrangements were made to the satisfaction of the committee from Anderson, and the invitation was withdrawn.

The invitation to come to Chick Springs was accepted and the 1916 convention will be at that place. The headquarters of the state convention will be transferred from Columbia to Greenville, Mr. Thos. H. Pope, a well known and popular salesman from the Mountain City, having defeated Mr. John W. Lillard of Columbia, secretary for six or eight years. Mr. M. A. Whelan of the Florence post was elected president, defeating Mr. W. A. Livingston by two votes.

Mr. J. R. Shanklin of Anderson was elected one of the representatives to the national convention, which meets in Omaha. Mr. F. E. Burriss was made a member of the board of trustees of the state convention and was made chairman of the state legislative committee.

The state convention adopted a resolution against the serving of liquor of any kind at the convention banquets.

Mr. Shanklin, who is a staunch member of the order, came back elated over the success of the meeting. It is the first vacation he has enjoyed in several years.

CHAUTAUQUA FOR NEXT YEAR CERTAIN

Eight Hundred of the Necessary
1,000 Pledges Are in Hand.

The Redpath Chautauqua certainly received a compliment of no small importance on Friday night when the pledge cards were passed out for signing for season tickets for next year. It is necessary to secure 1,000 subscribers, and when the count was made, it was found that 860 of the required 1,000 had been signed. The remaining 140 will come in rapidly, it is believed.

The season tickets will go to those who sign for them at $2.50 each, but season tickets for persons not signing will retail strictly at $3.00 each. This is an incentive to subscribe for the tickets. A great number of people desire the chautauqua to come back to Anderson and are doing their best to have it come. Mr. Whaley who is at the head of the chautauqua committee of the chamber of commerce says that the return engagement next year is assured, and that Redpath will be back on the job next season.

The circuit of the circuit which embraces Anderson will be smaller next year and Anderson is to be one of the smallest towns.

In spite of the smallness of the city, Anderson people have turned out better than the people did in Birmingham, Ala.

DEATHS

Mrs. Betty Burgess.

Mrs. Betty Burgess, wife of Mr. W. G. Burgess, died Friday afternoon at her home in the Hopewell section of the county. The funeral services and interment were at Six and Twenty church Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Burgess was 70 years of age. She is survived by her husband and four children.

Funeral Mr. D. P. McPhail.

The funeral services of Mr. D. P. McPhail, who died at his home early Saturday morning, in the Hopewell section of the county, were held at Hopewell Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, after which interment was made in the church yard.

Several days ago Mr. McPhail underwent an operation at his home, one of his limbs being amputated on account of a sore which developed on one of his feet. The operation was performed in the hope of saving Mr. McPhail's life, as blood poison had set in.
